

CATHOLIC CHURCH MASS WEDS TARZANA COUPLE

Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church was the setting for the nuptial mass which joined Arthur Ernest Barnese and Elena Ann Scala in marriage, Father Ignatius officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Michele Scala of 18619 Collins St., Tarzana, are parents of the bride. Mr. Barnese is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Barnese of 18512 Collins St., Tarzana. Both were graduated from Canoga Park High School and are members of the Carmel and Grayson Clubs.

Mrs. John Solomoni was matron of honor and Rosalina Alosi was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Frank Barnese and Naomi Payne. Anthony Barnese served his brother as best man and Joe Quaresna and Joe Trapone ushered. Soloist was Pat Achterling.

The bride wore ivory satin fashioned with sheer neckline, bodice and sleeves of lace. Panels of seed pearls and lace embroidery were used on the bouffant skirt. A bonnet of seed pearls held her veil and she carried white bouquet of roses and orchids. Attendants wore lace and satin gowns with headdresses of tulle. Their flowers were sprays of tallisman roses attached to muffs.

Following a reception for 200 guests at the V.F.W. Club in Tarzana, the newlyweds left for Saginaw, Mich., where the bridegroom will be inducted into the armed forces.

WAYNE MOORES REPEAT VOWS

In ceremonies read by Dr. M. L. Long at the First Baptist Church, Burbank, Joan Ann Petersen be-
