

Tall, youthful, supertalented MICHAEL HUD-DLESTON, formerly lead singer with shows at the Rossmoor Inn, is featured vocalist Monday through Friday in the Good Time Musical Revue at the John Wayne Theatre at Knotts Berry Farm. Show times are 1 and 3 p.m. The shows include JOHNNY BLANKEN-SHIP on lead guitar, banjo and fiddle; RANDY EMER-SON on keyboards, trombone and trumpet and SAL BARNES on drums and trumpet. JAN REEVES is the show's feminine star and she sings such tunes as I Believe in Music and You Won't See Me with Michael.
Michael is featured on a group of Civil War songs titled
The American Trilogy as well as Spanish Eyes, Sweet Caroline and a medley of Tony Orlando hits. Young Michael is a graduate of Lakewood High. His dynamic style won him appearances at the Landmark and Tropicana hotels in Las Vegas. He has been performing at Knott's Berry Farm since May, featured originally at the Fiesta Village and the Wagon Camp.
